

David Thompson Award Challenge 2017

This challenge is an optional activity held at Spring Thaw which allows you and your patrol to earn extra Carnival Cash for the Auction on Saturday night. There are four requirements to the challenge and for each one you enter you will receive Carnival Cash. If you enter all four your patrol is eligible to win the Challenge Award. First, second and third place winners will receive Carnival Cash.

This year except for the trivia questions, the rest of the requirements are based on a country that the Patrol will be creating to attend the Olympics.

The four requirements for 2017 are:

1. Have at least one member of your patrol dressed in your national costume of the country that your patrol creates. Costume to be worn to Campfire on Friday night. Bonus point's available if all members of your patrol are dressed up in costume.
2. Trivia contest, trivia questions (based on real Olympic Games) will be handed out on Friday night and need to be handed in at HQ before activities resume after lunch on Saturday (1:30 pm). Extra Carnival Cash will be given for each correct answer.
3. Make a Flag. The patrol will be required to make a flag for their new country including their Scout Groups colors up to max of four colors and to be shown to the Camp Chief after flag break and before start of the first event on Saturday. The flag will need to be carried to each of the events on Saturday.
4. Traditional national food and drink for your new country to be made at camp. Food will be judged on original appearance and taste. Each Patrol will be required to prepare food and drink at lunch time on Saturday and bring to camp HQ and present to the Camp Chief and the Asst. Camp Chief. Be prepared to explain about your country to the Camp Chief and the Asst. Camp Chief.

As a patrol, you may enter any one or as many as you like of the 4 requirements. Each requirement that you enter will earn your patrol $100 carnival cash. To be eligible for the David Thompson Award Challenge you must enter all 4 requirements. The overall winner (the patrol that earns the most points) will be awarded an additional $1500 carnival cash and the David Thompson Award crest, second place will earn $1000 extra carnival cash and third place will earn $700 extra carnival cash.
